

OXLEAP26 CONFERENCE AT A GLANCE

09:15 – 10:00

REGISTRATION

[Foyer, Sultan Nazrin Shah Centre]

10:00 – 10:15

WELCOME – Dr Rachel Pechey

[Tuanku Bainun Auditorium]

10:15 – 11:00

PLENARY SESSION
Professor Martin White, University of Cambridge

[Tuanku Bainun Auditorium]
Chair: Dr Rachel Pechey

11:00 – 11:25

REFRESHMENTS

[Foyer, Sultan Nazrin Shah Centre]

11:25 – 13:00

SESSION 1 Dietary Change [Tuanku Bainun Auditorium]
Chair: Dr Keiko Kanno

Meating your match: Do matched or unmatched meat and plant-based meals lead to higher vegetarian meal selections? Evaluations in online and pilot field studies (Emma Garnett, University of Oxford)

Increased availability of meat-free hospital meals promotes sustainable food choices without reducing satisfaction (Alice Elena Seffen, University of Bonn)

'Would you like peas instead of avocados?' Variation in willingness to pay for environmentally sustainable groceries across people and products (Thijs van Rens, University of Warwick)

Early adopters in the diffusion of plant-based foods: Applying diffusion of innovation and Bourdieu's Distinction Theories to explain the adoption of plant-based foods in the UK (Marlana Malerich, University of Sussex)

Consumption of animal-based dairy products and plant-based dairy alternatives: An analysis of barriers and drivers informed through the theory of planned behaviour (Leonie C Peiffer, Erasmus University)

SESSION 2 Challenges in Farming [Nash Suite]
Chair: Dr Emily Lewis-Brown

Assessing synergies and trade-offs in national AFOLU net-zero pathways using multiscale land-use modelling (Colm Duffy, University of Galway)

'Death by a thousand cuts': The role of moral distress and moral injury in farmer mental ill-health (Rebecca Knowles, Stockfree Farming)

Farmer perspectives on transitioning to organic systems: A case study from the Republic of Ireland (Tara Kenney, University College Cork)

Microbial shepherding: The creation of culture(s) at the more-than-artisan scale (Aidan Demsky, University of Oxford)

Cattle ranching encroachment on protected areas depending on location and governance: The Brazilian Amazon (Leonie Hodel, University of Cambridge)

OXLEAP26 CONFERENCE AT A GLANCE

13:00 – 14:00

LUNCH AND POSTER VIEWING

[Foyer, Sultan Nazrin Shah Centre]

14:00 – 15:35

SESSION 3 Future Food Systems [Tuanku Bainun Auditorium]

Chair:

Navigating the protein transition: Using a restatement to comprehend complex protein production and consumption systems (Océane Duluins, UC Louvain)

Pursuing dietary transitions requires reshaping global food production and trade networks (Shruti Jain, University of Oxford)

Deriving a trajectory for food sales targets among European retailers using the EAT-Lancet Commission dietary intake (Sarah Ison, Madre Brava)

Shaping the future of meat and dairy: Firm strategies in alternative protein innovation (Hatice Has, Lund University)

The ethics of future food systems: Alternative proteins, 'naturalness', and relational values (Amy Taggart, Trinity College Dublin)

SESSION 4 Governance and Policy [Nash Suite]

Chair: Cleo Verkuil

From dietary goals to actionable change: Stakeholder and research perspectives on barriers and needs for food system transformation in Europe and the UK (Rachel Headings, University of Oxford)

Narrow livestock futures: Strategic ignorance and the FAO Sustainable Livestock Transformation Agenda (Kathrin Lauber, University of Edinburgh)

Comparing livestock transition pathways: Stranded assets and cost allocation in England (Stephanie Walton, University of Oxford)

Science, politics and power: The political economy of meat and dairy regulation in the EU and UK (Graeme Taylor, Endure Consulting)

Why 1.5°C food system roadmaps diverge: A structured comparison of assumptions (Anniek Kortleve, Leiden University)

15:35 – 16:00

REFRESHMENTS

[Foyer, Sultan Nazrin Shah Centre]

16:00 – 16:45

PLENARY SESSION

Sue Pritchard, Food, Farming and Countryside Commission

[Tuanku Bainun Auditorium]

Chair: Professor Sir Charles Godfray

16:45 – 18:00

POSTER SESSION AND DRINKS RECEPTION

[Foyer, Sultan Nazrin Shah Centre]

